Admission Policies of the Faculty of Science, Tokyo Metropolitan University

The Faculty of Science aims to develop researchers and engineers who are full of creativity and ambition, are capable of uncovering the structure of the natural world, and are willing to actively take on new challenges for the future of humanity. Accordingly, the Faculty of Science seeks the following individuals:

1. Individuals who have basic academic skills necessary to pursue an undergraduate education based on the educational goals set in each department within the Faculty of Science, and who continuously strive for high standards and dedicate themselves to their studies and research.
2. Individuals who possess intellectual curiosity, explore the unknown, demonstrate abundant creativity, and approach their studies and research with individuality.
3. Individuals who are ethical, deeply concerned about the current and future conditions of nature and human society from a global perspective, and who are motivated to contribute to identifying and solving these issues.

Admission Policies of the Department of Biological Sciences

Biological science is the study of the mechanisms of life and the relationships between organisms and their environments, including the processes of evolution. The Department of Biological Sciences seeks the following individuals who wish to advance their studies and research in biology and the biological sciences with us:

1. Individuals who are passionate about biology and enthusiastic about experiments, observations, and research.
2. Individuals who aim to develop research, planning, and implementation skills through the study of biological sciences.
3. Individuals who wish to enhance their English proficiency and engage in activities at an international level.

I. Number of Students to be Admitted

Department of Biological Sciences, Faculty of Science --- 2

[Note 1] The length of study is four years.

[Note 2] No applicants may be selected depending on the selection results.

[Note 3] Students can graduate from the University by taking only the courses conducted in English.

II. Qualifications for Application

Foreign national applicants who meet all of the requirements specified in 1 to 3.

1. Whether you are eligible for university admission

Applicants who meet any of the following (a) to (e)

- (a) Applicants who have completed 12 years of formal school education overseas (including those who are expected to complete by March 31, 2027). [Note 1]
- (b) Applicants equivalent to (a) above. [Note 2]
- (c) Applicants who have completed 12 years of school education overseas at an educational institution that is accredited by an international accreditation organization recognized by the Minister of Education, Culture, Sports, Science and Technology of Japan (*) (including those who are expected to complete by March 31, 2027). [Note 1]

(*) For details, please refer to the website of the Ministry of Education, Culture, Sports, Science and Technology, specifically the section titled “(6) Foreign Schools Accredited by International Accreditation Organizations” at https://www.mext.go.jp/a_menu/koutou/shikaku/07111314/006.htm (Japanese site). International accreditation organizations include WASC, ACSI, CIS, NEASC, and Cognia (NCA CASI, NWAC, SACS CASI, and COBIS) as of June 2026.

- (d) Applicants who have obtained one of the following qualifications overseas. (For the International Baccalaureate Diploma, applicants who are expected to obtain it by March 31, 2027, are also included.)
 - i. The International Baccalaureate Diploma (awarded by the International Baccalaureate Organization, a corporate body funded in conformity with the Swiss Civil Code) (Applicants who are expected to obtain the Diploma by March 31, 2027, are also included.)
 - ii. The Abitur Certificate (recognized by each state in Germany as a university admission qualification)
 - iii. The Baccalauréat Diploma (recognized in France as a university admission qualification)
 - iv. The General Certificate of Education Advanced Level (recognized in the United Kingdom of Great Britain and Northern Ireland as a university admission qualification) or the International General Certificate of Education Advanced Level. Either three A-level subjects or two A-level and two AS-level subjects, totaling four subjects, are required.
 - v. The European Baccalaureate Diploma (recognized in the member states of the European Union as a university admission qualification)
- (e) Applicants who are recognized by this University as having acquired the academic ability equivalent to (a) – (d) above and will have reached the age of 18 by March 31, 2027.

2. Whether the applicant has obtained a score on the University Entrance Qualification Examination or the Unified University Admission Examination

Applicants who meet any of the following (a) to (c)

- (a) Applicants who have taken an SAT Reasoning Test or ACT (+ Optional Writing Test) administered on or after April 1, 2025.

- (b) Applicants who have obtained (including those who are expected to obtain) the International Baccalaureate Diploma with six subjects, including Mathematics and two subjects from chemistry, biology, and physics (any level is acceptable).
 - (c) Applicants who have taken a University Entrance Qualification Examination or a Nationwide University Entrance Examination administered after 2023 in a country other than Japan, and who are able to submit the transcript and an official document explaining the examination. The examination must include subjects equivalent to science (such as chemistry, biology, physics, etc.) and mathematics.
3. Regarding whether External English Proficiency Test Scores are required or relevant
Applicants who have taken a TOEFL iBT test or an IELTS Academic Module test administered on or after April 1, 2025.
[Note] Scores from any tests taken at home are not accepted.

[Note 1]

For applicants who have attended junior and senior high schools or a secondary school in Japan (*1), the total duration of attendance at such schools must not exceed 3 years, and the 12th year of school education must be completed at a school overseas (*2).

(*1): This includes schools overseas that provide education in accordance with the Japanese School Education Act.

(*2): “A school overseas” refers to a school located overseas that provides education in accordance with the formal education system of the respective foreign country, or that is accredited by an international accreditation organization.

[Note 2]

“Applicants equivalent to (a)” refers to those who fall under one of the following:

- (a) Applicants who have passed a national certification examination (or an equivalent examination) in a foreign country that is officially recognized as assessing academic ability equivalent to that of a person who has completed 12 years of formal school education in that country, and who will have reached the age of 18 by March 31, 2027.
- (b) Applicants who have completed a course of study corresponding to secondary school education in a foreign country where the formal school education is less than 12 years (including those who have passed a national certification examination that is officially recognized as assessing academic ability equivalent to such education, or an equivalent examination), and who have completed a Japanese university preparatory course at a school recognized by the Minister of Education, Culture, Sports, Science and Technology of Japan (including those who are expected to complete by March 31, 2027).
- (c) Applicants who have completed a course of study at a school overseas that is equivalent to a senior high school and satisfies the requirements of providing 11 or more years of education, as determined by the Minister of Education, Culture, Sports, Science and Technology of Japan (including those who are expected to complete by March 31, 2027).

Notes on qualification approval and confirmation

- (1) Applicants who fall under qualification 1. (e) must undergo application qualification screening in advance. Please contact the Admissions Division, Administrative Affairs Department of TMU no later than July 3 (Fri), 2026, at 5:00 pm JST.
- (2) Applicants from international schools are advised to contact the Admissions Division of the Administrative Affairs Department at TMU in advance, because some applicants may not meet the necessary application qualifications, or the University may require additional time to verify their qualifications.

- (3) Regarding eligibility requirement (2)(C), for a list of university entrance qualification examinations and unified university admission examinations recognized by the University, please refer to Appendix I (p.13). Those who intend to apply under this category are required to contact the Admissions Division, Administrative Affairs Department of TMU by July 17 (Fri) for a preliminary screening if they wish to apply using qualifications not included in the list.
- Please note that, as the verification process requires time, inquiries submitted after this deadline may result in the University being unable to approve the qualification as a recognized examination by the application deadline.
- Therefore, applicants are encouraged to take the SAT or ACT, where possible.

III. Application Procedures

Applications must be submitted through the designated internet application system. Contact the Admissions Division, Administrative Affairs Department of TMU if you have difficulties applying due to a faulty internet connection.

< Steps for internet application >

All steps must be completed according to the following order by the end of the application period.

- (1) Register for “My Page,” upload your face photo data, and enter application information.
- (2) Pay the examination fee.
- (3) Print the Application Form and required documents from the “Required Documents Printings” page on “My Page” and send them by post together with the other necessary application documents, including the certificate of graduation. 3. Important notes for the application

- (1) Any documents arriving after the application period will not be accepted under any circumstances. Send the application documents well in advance to meet the deadline. (Applicants are not allowed to bring and submit application documents directly to the University.)
- (2) Application documents must be sent as follows.

[For applicants in Japan]

Affix a color-printed mailing label (printed from Required document print screen on “My Page”) on a self-prepared envelope (24×33.2 cm, A4 size) and send it by registered using registered express mail (from Japan) . If the mailing label is printed in black and white, trace the letters and lines of “Registered 書留” and “Express 速達” with a red pen.

[For applicants outside Japan]

Send the documents using a method that allows tracking, such as EMS (Express Mail Service). Affix a color-printed mailing label (printed from Required document print screen on “My Page”) to a self-prepared envelope (24×33.2 cm, A4 size). If the label cannot be affixed, write “Application Documents Enclosed” on the envelope and enclose the mailing label inside.
- (3) Sending an application from Japan via parcel delivery service, motorcycle courier, etc. is not acceptable.
- (4) If there are any flaws in the application documents, the Admissions Division, Administrative Affairs Department of TMU will contact the relevant applicants by phone or email. (In principle, those living outside Japan will be contacted by email.) If corrections are not made by the deadline specified by the university, the application will not be accepted.
- (5) Any documents submitted will not be returned under any circumstances.
- (6) The Recipient Number will be displayed on “My Page” after the University receives application documents, no later than August 28 (Fri), 2026. This number will be used to announce the first-stage screening results. If your number is not displayed on “My Page,” contact the Admissions Division, Administrative Affairs Department of TMU by August 31 (Mon).
- (7) If an applicant is determined to be unqualified after their application is received, they shall be treated as an unqualified applicant.
- (8) If any fraud is discovered during the application process, admission will be rescinded even after enrollment.

- (9) Applicants who require a Certificate of Eligibility (COE) to obtain a student visa for entering the University should submit the “Student Visa Support Request Form” together with other application documents. It takes approximately 2 to 3 months for the COE to be issued. Therefore, please prepare the necessary documents for the COE application in advance, so that they can be submitted to the International Affairs Office immediately after the entrance exam results are announced. For details about the required application documents, please refer to the website of the International Affairs Office at https://www.ic.tmu.ac.jp/english/study_abroad/visa.html.
- (10) If you have any disabilities that you would like help with during examinations and school attendance, contact the Admissions Division, Administrative Affairs Department of TMU. Please see “IX Contacts” for contact details. After the consultation, submit the Request Application Form by July 3 (Fri), 2026, at 5:00 pm JST. Please note that the University may be unable to respond to a request made after the deadline. An early consultation is encouraged, as it may take some time to respond to your request in some cases.
- (11) Request official score reports, such as the TOEFL iBT Official Score Report, IELTS Test Report Form, SAT Reasoning Test Scores, ACT (+Optional Writing Test) Scores, and International Baccalaureate Transcript of Grades, well in advance to ensure they are sent to the University in time, considering the time necessary for delivery. For TOEFL iBT scores, only the test scores are considered valid (MyBest Scores are not accepted). For the IELTS Academic module, scores obtained through One Skill Retake cannot be used.

【 Sending Test Scores from the External Testing Organizations 】

The following test scores must be sent to Tokyo Metropolitan University directly from the testing organizations.

- SAT Reasoning Test or ACT (+Optional Writing Test) Official Scores Report
- TOEFL iBT Official Score Report
- IELTS Test Report Form (Academic module)
- International Baccalaureate Transcript of Grades

[University’s mailing address]

Department: Admissions Division, Administrative Affairs Department of TMU

Please follow the procedures using these code numbers. The same applies to those who have already taken the tests.

Delivery may take 3 to 4 weeks at most for the IELTS Test Report Form and 7 to 8 weeks for the rest after placing a request. Please allow sufficient time for these procedures to ensure that your test scores reach the University by the application deadline. For more information, please contact the relevant testing organizations.

IV. Payment for Examination Fee

- (1) Payment may be made by credit card, at a convenience store, or via Pay-easy (bank ATM or internet banking). (Business hours vary depending on the financial institution through which you make the payment.) For details, please refer to the Guidance page of the internet application system.
- (2) Payment must be completed by August 18 (Tue), 2026, at 8:00 pm JST. Even if payment is completed by that time, the application will not be accepted unless the University receives the required documents by 8:00 p.m. JST on that day.
- (3) The following fees are required for the application.
 - Examination fee: 17,000 Japanese yen
 - Service charge: 900 Japanese yen
- (4) The examination fee will not be refunded for any reason once the application has been processed. Please make the payment only after carefully considering your application.
- (5) Applicants may be exempt from paying the entrance examination fee if they, or the person primarily responsible for their school expenses, have been affected by natural disasters designated by the University. For details, please refer to “令和8年度自然災害被災者に対する入学審査料の免除について (2027年度学部入試) (Entrance Examination Fee Exemption for Applicants Affected by Natural Disasters, Academic Year 2027 Undergraduate Admissions)” available on the University’s website at <https://www.tmu.ac.jp/entrance/faculty/outline/15374.html> (Japanese site) or to the last page of these Guidelines.
- (6) A refund of the entrance examination fee may be requested if the fee has been paid but no application has been submitted, or if a duplicate payment has been made by mistake. (Refunds cannot be issued to foreign bank accounts.) Please note that service charges and other charges incurred at the time of payment of the application fee are non-refundable. For details, please refer to “入学審査料の返還について (Refund of the Entrance Examination Fee)” on the University’s website at https://www.tmu.ac.jp/campuslife_career/expenses.html (Japanese site) or contact the Fund Management Section, Accounting Division, General Affairs Department. (See “IX Contacts” for contact details.)

- To be eligible for the Tokyo resident classification, an applicant, their spouse, or a first-degree relative must have resided in Tokyo continuously for over one year before enrollment (from April 1, 2026, to April 1, 2027). Eligibility must be certified by the municipality on the University's designated form, Certificate of Items Stated in Resident Register (住民票記載事項証明書).

(2) Tuition fee

Annual amount: 520,800 Japanese yen (tentative amount)

[Notes]

- Should the tuition fee be revised while attending the University, the revised price shall apply.
- The tuition fees are to be paid in two installments per year. One-half of the annual tuition fee will be withdrawn from the registered bank account (automatic withdrawal) on the designated dates in May and October, respectively.

For full details on admission and tuition fee payments, please refer to "入学考査料・入学料・授業料について (Entrance Examination Fee, Admission Fee, and Tuition)" on the University's website at https://www.tmu.ac.jp/campuslife_career/expenses.html (Japanese site).

The University has its own tuition reduction and exemption programs. For details, please refer to "入学料減免、授業料減免・分納 (Admission Fee Reduction and Exemption, Tuition Reduction and Exemption, and Tuition Installment Payment)” on the Student Affairs Office’s website at <https://gs.tmu.ac.jp/exemption/> (Japanese site). Application details for various programs for the 2027 academic year will be made available on the Student Affairs Office’s website from mid-December 2026 onward. Please see “IX Contacts” for contact details.

3. Important notes on post-acceptance and post-enrollment procedures

- (1) This selection is for April 2027 enrollment. Enrollment time cannot be changed.
- (2) Those who fail to submit admission documents within the specified period will be treated that they have declined admission to this University.
- (3) In principle, No admission fee will be returned once admission procedures are completed.
- (4) After completing all required admission procedures, the Notice of Admission Procedure Completion will be displayed on “My Page.”
- (5) In principle, a person residing in Japan must be registered as a guarantor for the admission procedures. If your guarantor lives outside Japan, a “contact person in Japan” must be registered as an emergency contact. If you do not have one, please contact the Academic Affairs Division, Administrative Affairs Department of TMU.
- (6) Those enrolled through this selection may be restricted from changing their affiliation (department/faculty).
